Dunagan's Biology Class Cleans Up Greenhouse

The 1st and 3rd period biology classes have been busy the past month. The students, along with Mr. Dunagan; Mr. Baker Steve Dunn; and Mr. Calls Him, have cleaned up the greenhouse. If you have ever seen the greenhouse in previous years you can really see the vast improvement that has been made.

The biology classes are cleaning up the greenhouse to grow plants for their lab work. When more plants are grown; a lot of help is needed to maintain them. The biology department plans to hire students to take care of them.

The biology department also plans to raise earthworms in the greenhouse. This is where most of the income will come from. The worms will be sold as fish bait and for other purposes.

ENROLLMENT IS A SNAP

Crooked rivers get that way by following the lines of least resistance. Enrollment is that time of year when you find out what classes your friends want to take. You think of all the reasons why you should take that class so it will sound good to others. You try to pick all the courses or the easy teacher. The less work you have to do in the class the better. Avoid all classes where there is anything to study. Avoid everything where there is any math or tests that must be passed. Enroll in a class where the material to be covered you have already had. Never try anything new, stick with familiar. Right on man! Wrong, you are now heading down the easy road to failure. Covering your mistakes with a smoke screen doesn't cure them.

Not to advance is to recede. The only person that never made a mistake is the person that has never done anything. The student that never faces a challenge will never face a challenge as an adult. They will continue to turn aside and let opportunities pass them by. They will never accept a job that offers advancement because there is a challenge. They are afraid of failure. They would never ask for directions because that would be admitting that they did not know. When they cannot avoid failing then they blame it on someone else. Only a weakling wishes to live without obligations and penalties.

There isn't any map which shows the road to success. You have to make it yourself. High School students should have some idea of what they want to do when they graduate. Now is the time to start making your road to success. Choose your subjects wisely. Take classes that will help YOU, not because they are easy, not because your friends are in a class. YOU are the one that determines your future. The classes are here at Chilocco. The opportunity is knocking so think before you enroll. The great trouble today is that there are too many people looking for someone else to do something for them.

Biology Class Visits Worm Ranch at Deer Creek

Thursday, March 10th, the biology students accompanied by Mr. Dunagan and Mr. Baker visited the worm farm at Deer Creek. The classes are interested in starting a worm farm of their own, so they went to learn the process of raising worms.

Mr. Shipley, the worm ranch owner, gave the students a lecture on worms almost immediately after they arrived. He informed the students on the procedures of feeding, watering, changing bedding and other general chores of raising the worms.

Mr. Shipley stated that besides raising worms for fish bait; there was a great demand for them in organic gardening. There is such a great need for the worms in this field that their aren't enough suppliers, but he and the company he's under are hoping to get more people into this worm raising business.

Mr. Shipley also said that the key to having a successful worm farm is to understand their ecological value and raise them with the care that you would raise any other livestock.

GETING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is sometimes fun, but it is never a picnic.
If we print jokes, people say we are silly.
If we don't they say we are to serious.
If we clip things from other papers, we are to lazy to write 'em ourselves.
If we don't we are to fond of our own stuff.
If we print contributions, the paper is filled with junk.
If we don't, we don't appreciate true "genius."
Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this piece from some other paper AND WE DID.
